No Will? No Problem!

State Drawn Will in Community Property States

Last Will of Paul Procrastinator

First: I direct the Probate Judge to appoint anyone of his choosing to administer all property in my name and distribute it under the terms of this will.

Second: I direct that all of my assets be converted to cash, all of my debts paid, including taxes, probate fees, administrative fees, and attorney's fee.

Third: I direct that all our community property and one-half (if I am survived by one child) or one-third (if I am survived by two or more children) of my separate property, be paid to my spouse.

Fourth: I direct that the balance of my estate be distributed outright, and in cash, in equal shares to my children. If any child be a minor, I direct that his share be held by a guardian for his benefit. The guardian may be anyone of the court's choosing.

Fifth: When each of my minor children attains age 18, I direct that his share be then paid to him outright, regardless of his financial or emotional maturity.

Sixth: In the event that my spouse does not survive me, I direct that his/her share be added to the children's shares created under Articles Fourth and Fifth.

Seventh: If none of my children survive me but my spouse does, I direct that the remainder under Article Third be distributed outright in the following manner:

- One-half of my separate property and all of our community property to my spouse.
- The balance to my parents, if living, otherwise to my brothers and sisters or their heirs.

Eighth: If I am not survived by my spouse, children or parents, I direct the Probate Court to seek out my closest blood relatives and divide my estate among them in a way which gives an equal share to my closest relatives or their descendants.

Ninth: If no relatives are located, I direct that all of my property go to the State.

Note: The community property states are Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana, Nevada, New Mexico, Texas, Washington, and Wisconsin. In Alaska, spouses may opt-in to a community property arrangement.
